ROLLINS, INC. RECEIVES 2017 TOP WORKPLACES AWARD FROM THE ATLANTA JOURNAL-CONSTITUTION

ATLANTA, March 26, 2017 – Rollins, Inc., has been awarded a 2017 Top Workplaces honor by The Atlanta Journal-Constitution. Rollins has been named to the list for the very first time. The Top Workplaces lists are based solely on the results of an employee feedback survey administered by WorkplaceDynamics, LLC, a leading research firm that specializes in organizational health and workplace improvement. Several aspects of workplace culture were measured, including alignment, execution and connection.

“This is such a terrific recognition for our company because it represents Rollins’ commitment to our employees, and ultimately to our customers,” said John Wilson President and COO of Rollins. “Our employees’ hard work and dedication serving customers each and every day provides a stable workplace for our team. We’ve always known we have the best employees and a top work environment, and now this recognition helps others in the community know that as well.”

Henry Anthony, Vice President of Human Resources at Rollins added, “Because our careers here comprise a large part of our day, we all like to spend that time working for a company of which we can certainly be proud. This recognition helps not only with employee retention but also with recruitment: we want ‘A’ players to join our team to ensure our Company continues to prosper into the next generation.”

“Oftentimes, people assume it’s all about fancy perks and benefits,” says Doug Claffey, CEO of WorkplaceDynamics. “But to be a Top Workplace, organizations must meet our strict standards for organizational health. Time and time again, our research has proven that what’s most important to employees is a strong belief in where the organization is headed, how it’s going to get there, and the feeling that everyone is in it together.”
